Organization and Position Overview

Arts @ Large engages Milwaukee's students, their families, and the community in arts-rich experiential learning. Arts @ Large is committed to providing equitable access to educational experiences that include the arts. Arts @ Large has many program opportunities for artists, schools, teachers, students and the community. Through partnerships with public schools, Arts @ Large builds the confidence and competence of teachers to use the arts to engage students in dynamic educational activities. Each year, Arts @ Large provides hundreds of opportunities for artists to engage with schools and the community, through school residences, gallery exhibitions, professional development, public art installations and performances. Arts @ Large also offers summer arts camp for 3rd to 8th grade students to engage with multiple community artist educators and partners, focusing on a different art form each week. The campers learn the importance of healthy communities and relationships. The Arts @ Large staff and artist educators work with the Junior Counselors and high school students facilitating activities throughout the summer. The Arts @ Large Community Center features a student art gallery, art studios, a café and catering kitchen, a training center and conference rooms, and office space for Milwaukee area nonprofits and small businesses. There also is public space available for rental for weddings, parties, and events. On Saturdays, local artists guide participants to explore their creativity in visual art, music, dance, theatre and literary arts during arts4all. Moreover, Arts @ Large presents a free concert series Music Under the Stars, performances by local musicians, theater, dance, performance art, festivals, art making workshops, and environmental education at the community center and at Paliapito Eco-Arts Park.

The Executive Director will be thoroughly committed to Arts @ Large's mission. Reporting to the Board of Directors they will have overall strategic and operational responsibility for Arts @ Large's staff, programs, expansion, and execution of its mission. The Executive Director will have a deep knowledge of the field, core programs, operations, and business plans and ensure implementation with fidelity to mission and core values. The next Executive Director will have strong relationships and connections in the community, will be able to publicly share the impact of Arts @ Large's mission and vision, and will grow and support a creative and dedicated staff team. Love for the arts, artists, and the community.
